AMITY UNIVERSITY

In Association With

Organize Blood Donation Camp

Life is precious and what makes it sustainable is the blood, which has no substitute. It is required regularly round the clock to save human life as there are more blood seekers than donors. Annual requirement of blood in Delhi is approximately 750,000 units.

To motivate and familiarize students with the importance of voluntary blood donation, Amity and Rotary District Bank jointly organize Blood Donation Camp.

Leading the noble initiative of donors and students, Referring to, Amity Chairman, Trustee, Nitendra Mehta Education Foundation (NMF) says " Nothing is more rewarding and satisfying than to donate blood to save someone's life. But there are very less people who understand this and come forward to contribute their might to this life saving effort." , Dr. Ashok K. Chaurasia Founder, President, Amity always motivates and inspires the donors during each blood donation camp.

Amity student volunteers, senior officials and faculty members donate blood during each camp.
